Description

Drawing inspiration from classical column architecture, this grey candle holder brings an air of refined artistry to any space. Its monolithic form features subtle tonal variations in the glazed finish, creating depth and visual interest that catches light beautifully. The substantial scale makes it an ideal centerpiece for dining tables or console arrangements. For a coordinated look, pair with the smaller version of this column holder, the Amalfi Grey Tall Jug, or the Garda Grey Glazed Tiber Vase. The matt finish works exceptionally well with metallic accessories - consider adding the Tall Large Gold Pinecone Finial for textural contrast. For those seeking a complete collection, the entire Amalfi range offers complementary pieces in harmonious grey tones that work seamlessly together.
