Description

Embrace the opulence of autumn with our Autumn Ruby Hydrangea. This exquisite artificial bloom captures the essence of Hydrangea macrophylla in its most vibrant form. Its deep ruby petals mimic the lush, layered appearance of mature hydrangea blooms. Each stem boasts a generous 18cm flower head, creating a stunning focal point, the 68cm stem, complete with realistic petioles and leaf nodes, captures the plant's natural architecture. This botanically accurate representation brings the allure of Hydrangea's late-season color all year-round, offering an evergreen solution for seasonal displays and timeless decor. An ideal choice for creating enduring floral installations that celebrate the rich palette of Autumn's botanical tapestry.
