Description

This miniature botanical marvel adds an understated freshness with its precisely sculpted foliage, nestled in a premium stone-effect vessel that exudes modern refinement. The authentic-looking leaves create depth and dimension, while the contemporary pot design makes it a versatile accent piece for retail displays and home settings. For maximum visual impact, pair this gem with our coordinating Rosemary, Basil, and Eucalyptus plants in matching stone-effect containers, or create an enchanting botanical collection by mixing it with our Shabby Pink Hydrangea and Pastel Tea Rose - the possibilities for creative merchandising are limitless. Perfect for curating inviting window displays or adding a finishing touch to shelving arrangements, this low-maintenance greenery solution promises year-round appeal without the need for watering or pruning.
