Description

Embrace the essence of autumn with this richly toned chrysanthemum stem, featuring deep chocolate-hued petals that curl and unfold with remarkable authenticity. Part of our celebrated Recipe Collection, this stem delivers the perfect mix of warmth and depth for seasonal displays. Create stunning arrangements by pairing with the Variegated Eucalyptus Bouquet for textural contrast, or combine with the Deep Mustard Dahlia Stem and Jewel Toned Burgundy Eucalyptus Foliage for a harmonious color story. The Autumn White Hydrangea adds a bright counterpoint, while the Asparagus Fern Bunch introduces delicate green accents. For trade customers, this stem represents an excellent opportunity to offer clients authentic-looking seasonal décor that maintains its beauty year-round. The deep, rich tones make it particularly appealing for autumn and winter merchandising, while its quality construction ensures customer satisfaction and repeat business.
