Description

Infuse your kitchen with organic character through this beautifully crafted Acacia wood chopping board. The distinctive live edge detail creates an unrepeatably silhouette that makes each piece uniquely yours, while the substantial weight and thickness demonstrate superior quality. Perfect for both food preparation and decorative display, this board brings warmth and authenticity to contemporary kitchens. For a coordinated look, pair with our Tiber Stone Ceramic Vase and Aged Stone Ceramic Vase for an artisanal display that celebrates raw materials and organic forms. The board also harmonizes beautifully with our collection of statement lighting, including the Pula Table Lamp and Inca Stem Table Lamp, which share its emphasis on natural materials and honest craftsmanship. Create an inspiring culinary corner by combining this piece with our Black Wood Round Framed Mirror to reflect light and add depth to your space.
