Description

Add a touch of winter splendour to your seasonal displays with this carefully detailed soft gold spray adorned with authentic pinecones. The understated metallic finish creates a luminous effect that catches and reflects light beautifully, while the natural pinecones provide organic texture and rustic charm. This versatile spray measures 42cm in height, making it perfect for both tabletop arrangements and larger decorative installations. The balanced composition of metallic and natural elements allows this piece to coordinate seamlessly with both contemporary and traditional holiday décor. Consider pairing with metallic glass ornaments, crystal-encrusted decorative picks, or frosted berry sprays to create stunning merchandising displays that will entice customers. The neutral yet festive colour palette works wonderfully with gold or silver accessories, making it an essential addition to any carefully curated Christmas collection. Whether used as a stunning focal point or as part of a larger arrangement, this spray offers endless creative possibilities for retailers looking to build eye-catching seasonal displays that resonate with design-conscious customers. The combination of shimmering golden surfaces and organic pinecone textures creates visual interest that draws attention and encourages closer inspection. This piece promises strong sell-through potential as it appeals to consumers seeking both refined style and natural elements in their holiday décor.
