Description

French provincial charm meets modern functionality in this distinctive side table, featuring a washed, bleached wood finish that adds rustic appeal to any interior setting. The full-width drawer and built-in shelf provide practical storage solutions while maintaining visual restraint through clean lines and understated black ironwork handles. Each piece is meticulously crafted from superior hardwood, following a unique design exclusive to Hill Interiors. To enhance the aesthetic appeal and create a cohesive look, consider pairing this side table with the Ice Shadows Table Lamp featuring a navy blue lampshade, the statement Chico Black Large Wire Mirror, or the industrial-inspired Ithaca Floor Lamp. These carefully selected accessories complement the table's blend of traditional and contemporary elements while adding layers of visual interest to your retail display.
