Description

Merging French allure with modern design sensibilities, this full-length mirror showcases meticulous artistry in bleached hardwood construction that brightens any space. The refined washing technique creates an understated patina, while the adaptable mounting system allows for both vertical and horizontal display, offering outstanding layout flexibility. Perfect for retail spaces seeking statement pieces that resonate with design-conscious clientele. Pair with the Copgrove Collection dining table and sideboard for a cohesive look, or create an eclectic arrangement with the Hammered Silver Astral vases and Lattice Ceramic table lamp for a curated mix of textures and materials that will appeal to your most discerning customers.
