Description

A truly of-the-moment accent piece, this dried floral stem creates immediate visual interest with its softly billowing, cloud-like plumes. The natural feathery texture invites touch while adding depth and dimension to any arrangement. Each stem offers unique character due to its organic origins, with subtle variations in fullness and gentle cream coloring that catches and diffuses light beautifully. Perfect for modern minimalist displays or rustic-influenced settings, this botanical accent pairs exceptionally well with our stoneware and Darcy vases, creating an effortless focal point. For maximum design impact, consider combining with dried Bunny Tail bunches, Lambs Ear sprays, and Variegated Eucalyptus to create layered, textural arrangements that will maintain their beauty permanently. The adaptable neutral palette allows for seamless integration into existing decor schemes while providing endless styling possibilities for your customers. When styled in multiples, these stems create dramatic height and movement, perfect for both residential and commercial spaces seeking that coveted organic-modern aesthetic that continues to dominate interior tre
