Description

Drawing inspiration from untamed meadows, this delicate cream rose spray channels natural beauty with its carefully detailed petals and gentle hue. Part of the distinguished Recipe Collection, this realistic botanical piece brings an air of understated luxury to any floral arrangement. Perfect for creating enchanting wedding bouquets, table centerpieces, or retail displays that tell a story of pastoral romance. For maximum visual impact, pair with complementary white gypsophila sprays to add ethereal texture, or combine with eucalyptus sprays for a fresh, modern aesthetic. The addition of purple wildflower sprays creates stunning depth and dimension, while white mock orange flowers introduce charming seasonal character. This versatile stem works beautifully in both minimal contemporary settings and abundant cottage-style displays, making it an essential addition to any artificial flower inventory.
