Description

The Xanthium Spray, with its delicate, feathery blooms, offers a captivating addition to any floral arrangement or interior styling. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this faux floral mimics the natural beauty of the Xanthium flower, also known as the Cocklebur, with its intricate, golden-hued petals. Pair this striking stem with other neutral-toned botanicals, such as eucalyptus or pampas grass, to create a harmonious, organic-inspired display. Whether incorporated into a rustic farmhouse aesthetic or a contemporary minimalist setting, the Xanthium Spray's versatile charm will elevate the ambiance and add a touch of natural elegance to your retail space or online offerings.
