Description

Indulge in the deep, rich burgundy tones of this meticulously detailed orchid spray, featuring lifelike petals that create an illusion of freshness in any setting. The burgundy hue adds warmth and depth to both modern and traditional spaces, while the generous 91cm height provides dramatic visual impact in tall arrangements. For a cohesive autumn-inspired display, pair with the jewel-toned burgundy eucalyptus foliage, autumn coffee hydrangea, and burgundy spear hydrangea to create layers of complementary colors. The rich burgundy tones also work beautifully with white accents - consider adding the white gypsophila spray for a delicate contrast or the large white orchid for a stunning monochromatic effect. This spray is particularly popular among our Recipe Collection series, renowned for its attention to detail and exceptional quality that maintains its beauty throughout the seasons. The deep coloring and realistic texture make it an excellent choice for retail displays, hospitality venues, and corporate environments where lasting impressions matter.
