Description

Bring the outdoors in with our meticulously designed Elaeocarpus Stem, featuring delicate foliage that creates a gentle cascade of green. Each stem displays remarkable attention to detail, with finely textured leaves that appear to dance with the slightest movement. This artificial botanical marvel presents an opportunity for year-round greenery without maintenance concerns, making it an excellent choice for retail environments and design projects. For an inspired arrangement, pair with our Seeded Eucalyptus Spray to add depth, or combine with the architectural Black Chrysanthemum for dramatic contrast. The Variegated Maple Leaf and Silver Wattle Leaf create stunning textural combinations, while the Blackened Grass Spray adds an unexpected contemporary twist. Perfect for both minimalist and lavish displays, this stem works beautifully in seasonal rotations and permanent installations, offering your customers endless styling possibilities.
