Description

Showcase the iconic Australian flora with our lifelike Eucalyptus Spray. This 70cm arrangement captures the essence of the genus, featuring the distinctive orbicular leaves and glaucous hues characteristic of Eucalyptus cinerea. The spray's silver-dollar foliage and slender phyllodes perfectly mimic the plant's natural form. From the smooth, mottled stems to the subtle variations in leaf shape and color, this artificial spray brings the aromatic allure of the eucalyptus forest to any space. These beautiful stems can be used alone to set off almost any vase or as foliage or within a mixed arrangement of blooms; ideal for creating long-lasting, low-maintenance displays that appeal to botanically-inclined customers seeking authentic-looking greenery.
