Description

Bring the rustic allure of dried botanicals to your collection with this enchanting pampas grass stem, a sought-after addition that adds depth and character to any arrangement. The feathery plumes create a soft, wispy silhouette that introduces subtle movement and textural interest to displays. From our curated Recipe Collection, this natural-toned piece works beautifully with complementary accessories like our Darcy vases, creating an understated yet impactful presentation. For maximum visual impact, consider pairing with our seeded eucalyptus sprays, lambs ear foliage, and white wild meadow roses. The natural hues and delicate structure make it an essential component for creating on-trend dried arrangements that appeal to contemporary tastes. Trade customers will appreciate the adaptability of this piece, as it seamlessly integrates into both minimalist and layered compositions, offering their clientele endless styling possibilities for modern interior spaces.
