Description

A thoughtfully crafted vessel that showcases a sophisticated distressed ceramic glaze in versatile grey tones, this exceptional vase merges traditional artisanship with contemporary style. The subtle weathering effect adds depth and character, making each piece uniquely expressive. Perfect for modern interiors, it harmonizes beautifully with the coordinating Garda collection, including the taller Juniper vase and complementary Raine design for a curated display. For an artful arrangement, pair with the Matt White Ceramic Column Candle Holder or crown your creation with a Large White Orchid in Stone Pot - the neutral palette allows for endless styling possibilities while maintaining sophisticated appeal for discerning retail customers
