Description

A triumph of metallic artistry, this floor-standing vase captivates with its distinctive hammered silver surface that creates an enchanting interplay of light and shadow. The sculptural silhouette and substantial proportions make it an ideal focal point for modern and contemporary spaces, while its versatile metallic finish harmonizes seamlessly with both warm and cool color palettes. Perfect for pairing with oversized dried arrangements or as a standalone artistic element, this vase coordinates beautifully with grey glazed ceramics, stone-effect accessories, and mirror-finished furniture pieces - as seen in the sophisticated Copgrove Collection. Consider styling alongside matt white ceramics for a study in contrasts, or embrace its reflective qualities by positioning near natural light sources to maximize its atmospheric impact.
