Description

Merging rustic charm with modern design sensibilities, this clay wicker planter collection redefines indoor botanical displays with its textural interplay and authentic materiality. The natural clay construction provides an organic foundation, while the intricate wicker pattern weaves a story of traditional craftsmanship across each vessel's surface. This set of four graduated planters offers varied display possibilities, perfect for creating multi-level botanical arrangements or scattered focal points throughout commercial or residential spaces. The neutral palette harmonizes effortlessly with existing décor while making greenery the true focal point. For an cohesive aesthetic, pair these planters with the Siena Brown Water Pot for a complementary earthy tone, or contrast with the clean lines of the Ordo Lyme White planters for dynamic visual interest. The Marble Planter makes an ideal companion piece, introducing subtle pattern variation while maintaining the natural material story. Each planter in the set functions both as a standalone statement or as part of a coordinated grouping, offering retailers flexible merchandising options that appeal to diverse customer preferences. The durability of clay construction ensures long-term value, while the classic design aesthetic guarantees sustained market appeal across changing seasons and trends.

Please Note: The flowers and plants used in the product photography are used for illustrational purposes only and are not included with the planter.
