Description

Crafted with natural jute fibres, this spherical hanging ornament offers an organic feel that centres any space with its understated presence. The woven texture creates an intricate play of light and shadow, while its substantial 23cm diameter makes it an impactful decorative piece. The neutral tones of the jute material enable seamless integration with various colour schemes and interior styles. This sustainable décor element presents retailers with a profitable addition to their eco-conscious product lines, appealing to environmentally aware consumers. The bauble's versatile design allows for creative merchandising opportunities - whether suspended individually as a statement piece or grouped in clusters at varying heights for dramatic effect. For complementary styling, consider pairing with woven wall hangings, macramé plant holders, or our collection of natural fibre baskets. The rustic charm of this piece harmonises particularly well with brass or copper hanging chains, ceramic vases, and botanical prints. Its year-round appeal extends beyond seasonal décor, making it a steady seller for retailers. The durable construction ensures longevity, while its lightweight nature facilitates easy shipping and storage. This piece responds to the growing demand for sustainable, artisanal-style home accessories that tell a story and create visual interest in both residential and commercial spaces.
