Description

Bring countryside grandeur into modern living spaces with this exquisite mirrored tray, crowned with beautifully detailed silver stag head handles. The textured rim and pristine mirrored surface create an eye-catching interplay of light and reflection. A versatile piece that resonates in both traditional manor house settings and contemporary homes. Perfect for styling coffee tables, dressing tables, or as a sophisticated barware display. The silver finish pairs seamlessly with metallic accents, crystal glassware, and rich textiles. Consider merchandising alongside velvet cushions, antique-inspired accessories, or modern minimalist décor for a striking visual story that appeals to diverse customer tastes. This statement piece bridges classic Highland charm with current interior trends, making it an excellent addition to your premium homeware collection. Ideal for retailers specialising in luxury accessories, country-inspired décor, or contemporary home styling.
