Description

From the esteemed Recipe Collection comes this meticulously detailed off-white incurve chrysanthemum stem, featuring gracefully curved petals that spiral inward to create depth and dimension. The stem's natural appearance makes it indistinguishable from freshly cut flowers, perfect for creating year-round displays that require no maintenance. For an outstanding arrangement, pair this chrysanthemum with our white Gladioli stems and classic Peonies to create dramatic height variation, or combine with Pussy Willow branches and Eucalyptus sprays for a more subtle, textured look. The bronze Artichoke accessory adds an unexpected architectural element, while our Seville Collection vases provide the ideal vessel to showcase these botanical beauties. This wholesale-ready flower promises excellent margins and consistent customer satisfaction, making it an essential addition to any artificial flower collection.
