Description

This is the Large White Orchid in Glass Pot. A sophisticated and timeless home addition that will add an air of serenity and elegance wherever it's placed. This faux orchid boasts a botanical accuracy second to none. From the realistic root network on show through the clear glass pot to the variety of opened blooms and closed buds, every care has been taken in the accuracy of its creation. This faux plant would look fantastic as a dining table or console table's centrepiece.
