Description

Experience the latest in decorative lighting with this LED wax candle that merges traditional charm with modern innovation. The realistic melt-effect design creates atmospheric illumination with its gentle, flickering glow, while the refined grey finish adds a touch of contemporary luxury to any space. This battery-operated candle provides the perfect alternative to traditional wax, offering lasting beauty without the worry of an open flame. For a cohesive aesthetic, pair with matching grey LED dinner candles from the Luxe Collection, or create an engaging display by combining various sizes from the same range. The sage-colored variants in the collection offer an additional option for creating depth and visual interest. Complete the look with the Tiber matt white ceramic vase for a unified, modern display that will appeal to design-conscious customers seeking safe, maintenance-free decorative lighting solutions.
