Description

Exquisite Passion Flower Spray, a stunning artificial rendition of the Passiflora incarnata. This meticulously crafted stem boasts the flower's iconic corona of delicate filaments, surrounded by pristine white petals and accented with verdant foliage. At 80cm tall, it's the perfect statement piece for both minimalist and maximalist interiors. Ideal for creating eye-catching displays, this faux passion flower pairs beautifully with tropical greenery like monstera or bird of paradise for an exotic feel. Alternatively, combine with soft, muted blooms like peonies or ranunculus for a romantic, cottage-inspired arrangement. Versatile and long-lasting, this artificial spray offers your customers a maintenance-free way to bring the intricate beauty of passion flowers into any space. Whether styled solo in a sleek vase or incorporated into lush bouquets, it's sure to captivate and sell quickly. Stock this timeless botanical to appeal to both modern and traditional aesthetics, perfect for home decor enthusiasts and those seeking unique floral accents. Its neutral palette ensures compatibility with various color schemes, making it a must-have addition to your artificial flower collection.
