Description

Crystal-clear glass forms the foundation of this artfully designed bouquet vase, featuring clean lines and balanced proportions that make it a standout piece for any retail display. The understated yet impactful silhouette allows for unlimited creative potential in floral arrangements, whether using authentic blooms or artificial stems. This piece coordinates beautifully with the Smoked Sage Glass collection, particularly the Fluted and Ellipse variations, creating opportunities for stunning multi-vase displays. For an intriguing textural contrast, consider pairing with stone accessories like the Darcy Ellipse Stone Vase or decorative stone fruit pieces. The traditional apothecary jar collection offers another complementary styling option, adding visual interest through varied heights and shapes while maintaining a cohesive glass-focused aesthetic. The clear design ensures this vase will appeal to a broad customer base, making it an essential addition to any home décor inventory.
