Description

Introducing a vase that merges modern aesthetics with serene practicality - this sage green vessel brings freshness and calm to any retail space. The contemporary platform silhouette features clean lines and balanced proportions, making it a sought-after piece for design-conscious customers. Its subtle green hue acts as a new neutral, perfectly complementing both minimalist and lavish displays. For an impeccable collection, pair this vase with pieces from the Smoked Sage series, including the Ellipse and Fluted designs, or create contrast with the Darcy collection in antique white or stone finishes. The understated color palette works beautifully with the Medium Apothecary Jar and Matt White Ceramic Dishes, offering endless merchandising possibilities for your customers. This piece promises to be a reliable seller that appeals to both traditional and contemporary tastes, making it an essential addition to any homeware collection.
