Description

Bring organic charm to your space with this graceful grey pussy willow branch, meticulously designed to mirror its natural counterpart. The tall, willowy stems create dynamic visual interest and movement in arrangements, while the delicate catkins add subtle texture. Perfect for modern or rustic interior schemes, this stem pairs beautifully with the Eucalyptus Spray for a serene display, or create drama by combining with Deep Mustard Dahlia and Blue Thistle stems. The neutral grey tones complement both the Darcy Antique White Vase and Aged Stone Ceramic Vase, making this a must-stock item for design-conscious customers seeking year-round botanical appeal.
