Description

Drawing inspiration from coastal aesthetics, this pristine matt white ceramic vessel creates a stunning focal point in contemporary interiors. Its clean lines and flawless finish showcase both artificial and dried botanical arrangements to perfection. The generous proportions and sculptural silhouette make it an ideal centerpiece for retail displays and residential settings. Perfect when paired with our coordinating Tiber and Regola vases in varying heights, or combined with our matt white ceramic candle holders for a cohesive collection. For a dramatic arrangement, add our eucalyptus stem sprays or mix with the Darcy series in antique white for a layered, tonal display that will appeal to design-conscious customers.
