Description

The beautiful lines of this statement vase redefine modern sophistication through its innovative ridged detailing. Part of the luxurious Sabbia Collection, the vase's textural surface catches light and creates mesmerising shadows, making it a focal point in any display. The cylindrical silhouette rises gracefully to a height that commands attention, while maintaining perfect proportions for both substantial floral arrangements and minimalist stems. The artisanal texturing technique results in a surface that appears to ripple like sand patterns on a beach, creating an organic yet refined presence. This piece pairs magnificently with the Mason Collection Grey Ceramic Straight Vase for a coordinated contemporary display, while the Pallida Collection Tall Fleck Vase offers a complementary textural contrast. For those seeking to create an artistic tableau, the addition of the Bloomville Urn Stone Vase provides a classical counterpoint to the modern aesthetic. The Off White Ceramic Flower Frog serves as an ideal practical accompaniment, enabling precise floral arrangements while maintaining the collection's refined aesthetic. The vase's neutral palette ensures it harmonises with any interior scheme, from understated monochromatic spaces to vibrant, colour-rich environments.
