Description

Handcrafted with exquisite attention to detail, this ceramic planter showcases a mesmerizing all-over bubble texture that adds depth and visual interest to any space. The rich caramel glaze creates a warm, luxurious finish that perfectly complements both modern and traditional décor schemes. Whether housing your favorite botanicals or standing alone as a sculptural piece on console tables or shelving, this versatile vessel makes a striking statement. For a cohesive look, pair with matching caramel-glazed vases from the Seville Collection or create an eclectic display by combining with the collection's complementary cream bubble planters and indigo scalloped pieces for a sophisticated retail presentation that will captivate your customers.
