Description

This remarkable ceramic vessel features an alluring bubble texture across its surface, finished in a deep indigo glaze that adds depth and intrigue to any space. Perfect as both an umbrella stand and tall planter, its multifunctional design allows creative freedom in styling. The rich blue tone and tactile pattern create visual interest whether displayed at floor level or atop furniture. For a curated collection, pair with coordinating pieces from the Seville range including the matching bubble vase, scalloped indigo vase, or create contrast with the cream bubble planters. The stand's generous proportions accommodate both practical storage and artistic floral arrangements, making it an essential addition to your product range that appeals to design-conscious customers seeking statement pieces for their homes.
