Description

Drawing inspiration from ancient Mediterranean pottery, this Siena Brown Hydria Pot radiates warmth and character through its rich earthen tones and classical form. The vessel's graceful curves and traditional amphora-style design make it an ideal centerpiece for artificial floral arrangements. For a cohesive interior narrative, pair with the matching Siena Brown Hurricane Lantern, Amphora Pot, or Water Pot from the same collection. The pot's substantial presence and artisanal finish create an authentic Mediterranean atmosphere, while its proportions perfectly accommodate statement botanical displays. Consider combining with our Large Cineraria Eucalyptus Spray for a dramatic focal point that merges classical and contemporary styling. 1
