Description

A miniature evergreen worthy of pride of place in your seasonal collection, this charming decorative piece marries rustic charm with contemporary design sensibilities. The verdant fir needles create an authentic silhouette that appears to grow naturally from its authentic wood log base, offering a seamless blend of organic textures and materials. Perfect for retail environments seeking to create immersive holiday displays, this piece works exceptionally well when grouped with complementary items from our collection, such as the Antique Gold Bell Bauble and The Noel Collection Wicker Bell decorations. The thoughtful scale makes it ideal for tabletop arrangements, window displays, or as part of a larger festive narrative. For maximum visual impact, consider pairing with our Pine Cone Trinket Dish and Fluted Glass Display Bowl to create engaging multi-level displays that will capture customer attention. The combination of the natural wood base and lifelike greenery appeals to the current trend for sustainable-looking decorative pieces, while its compact footprint allows for flexible merchandising options across various retail settings. This decorative tree stands ready to become an essential component of your seasonal inventory, offering your customers a perfect blend of traditional holiday symbolism and modern decorative appeal.
