Description

Infuse your space with wintry enchantment through this meticulously arranged duo of snow-dusted fir trees, each gracefully positioned atop a rustic wood log base. The delicate frosting on each needle creates an authentic alpine atmosphere, while the varying heights of the trees generate visual interest and depth. This charming arrangement mirrors the serenity of a snow-covered forest, making it an irresistible addition to any seasonal display. For retailers seeking to build comprehensive collections, this piece coordinates flawlessly with our Snowy Pine Garland for extended displays, or pair it with our Small Snowy Cedar Tree and Small Snowy Forest Tree Sculpture to craft a mesmerizing woodland scene. The natural wood base adds authenticity and grounds the arrangement, while providing stability and enhancing its presentation value. Perfect for window displays, countertop arrangements, or as a centerpiece, this versatile decoration appeals to customers seeking both traditional and contemporary winter décor. The attention to detail in the snow application and the organic arrangement of the branches ensures each piece appears unique, offering your customers an authentic slice of winter wonderland.
