Description

Infuse your space with serenity through this distinctive smoked sage glass vessel, featuring a gracefully proportioned silhouette crowned with a coordinating stopper. The muted green tones evoke a sense of tranquility while adding depth to contemporary interiors. Perfect for the Stamford furniture collection, this piece creates visual interest when paired with its taller companion bottle for a dynamic display. Enhance the arrangement by incorporating the matching ellipse vases, or create an organic tableau with Calabria olive trees. For a curated ambiance, combine with the Ice Shadows table lamp featuring a navy shade, or the understated Seville Collection Indigo planter to build a cohesive color story that appeals to design-conscious customers.
