Description

Infusing contemporary design with understated charm, this glassware piece showcases the interior world's most sought-after hue - a calming smoked sage that interior specialists are embracing as the new neutral tone. The fluted silhouette introduces an artistic quality through its rhythmic vertical patterns, creating an interplay of light and shadow that adds depth to any display. Perfect for both fresh-cut blooms and artificial arrangements, this vase delivers sublime style to retail spaces and homes alike. For an amplified design statement, consider pairing with complementary pieces from the smoked sage collection, including the Large Ellipse and Tall Fluted variations, to create dynamic multi-height arrangements. The vase harmonizes beautifully with stone-finished accessories like the Deep Stone Heart Dish and Siren Ceramic Shell Bowl, offering endless merchandising possibilities. This modern interpretation of decorative glassware answers the growing demand for colored glass pieces while maintaining a refined aesthetic that appeals to design-conscious consumers.
