Description

Delicately crafted to mimic the whimsical charm of Nigella flowers, this enchanting white stem brings ethereal beauty to floral arrangements. Its intricate seed pods and feathery foliage create depth and movement, while the pristine white hue adds a touch of serenity. Perfect for modern botanical displays when paired with the Natural Garden Collection's White Magnolia, Sweetpea stems, and Gypsophila sprays. The airy texture complements structured blooms like White Dahlias and Hydrangeas, making it ideal for wedding arrangements and high-end retail displays. Consider showcasing in the Garda White Stefanie Vase for a curated look that appeals to design-conscious customers.
