Description

Exquisite and timeless, our White Tea Rose stem from The Natural Garden Collection offers unparalleled realism and lasting beauty. This meticulously crafted Rosa x alba hybrid boasts delicate, creamy-white petals arranged in a classic rosette form, complemented by authentic green foliage. Perfect for creating elegant floral displays, this versatile faux flower pairs beautifully with lavender sprigs, eucalyptus, or dusty miller for a romantic, cottage-inspired arrangement. Its neutral palette suits various interior styles, from shabby chic to modern farmhouse. Showcase these stunning roses in rustic pottery, sleek glass vases, or as part of a lush table centerpiece. Their year-round appeal and low-maintenance nature make them an ideal choice for discerning customers seeking enduring floral elegance. Stock this essential piece to offer your clients a touch of sophisticated charm that will never wilt or fade, ensuring repeat business and customer satisfaction.
