Description

A masterful blend of modern aesthetics and functional design, this circular side table represents the finest example from our distinguished Rutland Collection. The perfectly proportioned round silhouette demonstrates unmatched attention to detail, with flawless joinery and superior materials that showcase the true quality of British furniture making. The balanced proportions and thoughtful design make this piece an ideal addition to contemporary living spaces, while its understated profile allows it to harmonise with both minimalist and richly decorated interiors. As part of the wider Rutland Collection, this side table maintains cohesive design elements that flow throughout the range, making it an essential piece for retailers seeking to offer their customers complete room solutions. For maximum visual impact and retail appeal, consider pairing with our curated selection of metallic vases, contemporary table lamps, or artisanal glass decorative pieces from our accessories catalogue. The table's surface provides the perfect platform for displaying statement pieces, while its considered dimensions ensure it fits seamlessly into any room arrangement.
