Description

Bringing rustic warmth and depth to any interior, this show-stopping mirror features a meticulously weathered wood frame that evokes a sense of heritage and artistry. The substantial 80cm diameter creates an impressive focal point while the distressed finish adds character and authenticity to the piece. The circular silhouette introduces organic fluidity to spaces, while the washed wood treatment provides subtle texture and visual interest. This mirror excels at maximizing light and creating an enhanced sense of space in any setting. For a cohesive design story, pair this statement piece with the Pella or Pula table lamps, which echo its understated refinement. The Athena Tall Jug provides an excellent styling companion, its form complementing the mirror's circular geometry while adding sculptural interest to the overall arrangement. Perfect for boutique hotels, upscale residential projects, or retail environments seeking to create an atmosphere of considered luxury.
