Description

Meticulously designed with remarkable attention to detail, this long-stemmed beauty showcases approximately three full blooms per stem, creating a lifelike display that brings freshness to any interior. The carefully constructed petals and leaves mirror the authentic charm of natural lilies while offering lasting appeal without maintenance concerns. For an impactful botanical arrangement, pair with the White Gypsophila Spray for delicate contrast, add texture with the Asparagus Fern Bunch, or create depth with the Viburnum Berry. The Lambs Ear Spray provides a perfect silvery foliage backdrop, while the White Gladioli creates dramatic height variation. From our distinguished Recipe Collection, this artificial flower delivers consistent quality that discerning customers expect, making it an essential addition to any retailer's premium artificial botanicals range. Its realistic appearance and durability ensure satisfied customers and repeat business, while its adaptable style suits both traditional and contemporary settings.
