

Wicker Tree Skirt

This wicker tree skirt is a must for the many customers who prefer an artificial tree, disguising metalwork at the foot of the tree and elevating the overall look. Without its skirt, a tree is only half-dressed.

- Handcrafted
- Natural, sustainable material
- An essential finishing touch

Description

Embrace the return to sustainable materials with this authentic wicker base concealer that adds rustic refinement to your holiday decor. This essential finishing touch gracefully masks the metalwork beneath artificial trees while adding texture and warmth to your seasonal display. The circular design creates a seamless foundation that enhances the overall presentation of your Christmas centerpiece. For the complete seasonal ambience, pair this natural accent with our curated selection of complementary accessories - the Frosted Pine Wreath with Pinecones offers organic harmony, while the Mercury Effect Bonbon Medium Candle Holder adds a contrasting shimmer. The Large Frosted Eucalyptus Candle Wreath provides additional layers of natural texture, and the Silver Quarterfoil Decorative Hanging Mirror reflects light to amplify the festive atmosphere. This thoughtful combination of decorative elements creates a cohesive holiday collection that appeals to customers seeking authenticity in their seasonal decorating. The wicker construction speaks to increasing consumer demand for environmentally conscious options, making this an intelligent addition to any retailer's holiday inventory.
